

AgamiSoft Ltd.

Leave Policy

1. Overview

This Leave Policy describes the types of leave available to employees of AgamiSoft Ltd., the entitlements for each, and the procedure for requesting leave. The leave year runs from 1 January to 31 December.

2. Leave Entitlements

Annual entitlements for confirmed full-time employees are summarized below.

| Leave Type            | Days per Year  | Notes                                                   |
|-----------------------|----------------|---------------------------------------------------------|
| Annual (Earned) Leave | 20             | Accrues monthly; up to 10 days may carry over.          |
| Casual Leave          | 10             | For short-notice personal matters.                      |
| Sick Leave            | 14             | Medical certificate required beyond 2 consecutive days. |
| Maternity Leave       | 112 (16 weeks) | Fully paid; up to two occasions.                        |
| Paternity Leave       | 10             | Within 30 days of childbirth.                           |
| Bereavement Leave     | 5              | For an immediate family member.                         |

3. Public Holidays

Public holidays are additional to the entitlements above and follow the government-declared holiday calendar, typically 16 to 22 days per year. If a public holiday falls on a weekly holiday, no substitute day is granted.

4. Applying for Leave

Leave requests must be submitted through the HR portal at least three working days in advance for planned leave. Sick and casual leave may be reported to the direct manager on the same day. All leave is subject to manager approval based on operational needs.

5. Carry-Over and Encashment

A maximum of 10 unused annual leave days may be carried into the next leave year and must be used by 31 March. Unused casual and sick leave cannot be carried over or encashed. On resignation, unused earned leave is encashed at the basic salary rate.

6. Unpaid Leave

Where an employee has exhausted all paid leave, unpaid leave may be granted at management discretion for up to 30 days per year. Unpaid leave beyond 30 days requires Head of Department and HR approval.

7. Leave During Probation

Employees on probation accrue leave but may only take sick and casual leave. Earned leave taken during probation requires special approval from HR.