

AgamiSoft Ltd.

Sales Handbook

1. Purpose

This Sales Handbook guides the AgamiSoft sales team in engaging prospects, managing opportunities, and closing deals consistently. It defines our process, pricing structure, and approval rules.

2. Sales Process

The AgamiSoft sales pipeline has five stages.

Stage	Description	Owner
1. Lead	Inbound or outbound prospect identified.	SDR
2. Qualified	Budget, authority, need, and timeline confirmed.	Account Executive
3. Proposal	Solution and pricing presented to the client.	Account Executive
4. Negotiation	Terms, scope, and contract finalized.	AE + Sales Manager
5. Closed	Contract signed and handed to Delivery.	Sales Manager

3. Product Pricing

Standard list pricing for subscription products is shown below. Prices are per month and billed annually.

Product	Starter	Business	Enterprise
AgamiFlow	$500	$1,500	Custom
AgamiInsight	$700	$2,000	Custom
AgamiAssist	$900	$2,500	Custom

4. Discount Approval

Discounts must be approved according to their size. Account Executives may approve up to 10% independently. Discounts from 11% to 20% require Sales Manager approval. Discounts above 20% require Head of Sales approval. No discount may exceed 35% under any circumstances.

5. Sales Targets and Commission

Each Account Executive carries a quarterly quota of $150,000 in new annual recurring revenue. Commission is 8% of closed ARR, rising to 12% on revenue above quota. Commission is paid in the month following contract signature.

6. Proposals and Contracts

All proposals must use the approved template and be reviewed by a Sales Manager before being sent. Contracts require legal review when the term exceeds 12 months or the annual value exceeds $50,000.

7. CRM Hygiene

- Log every client interaction in the CRM within 24 hours.
- Keep opportunity stages and close dates accurate.
- Attach signed contracts to the opportunity record before handover.

8. Handover to Delivery

Within three working days of closing, the Account Executive holds a handover meeting with the Delivery team, sharing the signed contract, scope, key contacts, and any commitments made during the sale.
